

Current Job Listings

We are always interested to hear from high calibre individuals with backgrounds in eProcurement, either from a technical angle or a client facing consulting perspective.

If you feel that this is you, and would like to register your interest with us for any positions listed below or those that may arise in the future, please send your CV to careers@procserve.com with a supporting message which demonstrates your skills and experience.

Current Openings:

- Business Development Manager
- Implementation Services Consultant