

SAP

SAP is the world's leading provider of business software. Today, more than 41,200 customers in more than 120 countries run SAP applications. Powered by the SAP NetWeaver platform to drive innovation and enable business change, SAP software helps enterprises of all sizes around the world improve customer relationships, enhance partner collaboration and create efficiencies across their supply chains and business operations.