

Department for Education

ProcServe and the Department for Education have been working in partnership since 2006 to assess how better procurement in schools could be supported by a national eMarketplace service. The Department is a Zanzibar customer through DWP Shared Services programme.